Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 1-2 and 15-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Beer et al.

See the appropriate paragraph of the 1/3/08 Office action.

Claims 1-2 and 15-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Beer et al. in view of Hasebe et al.

See the appropriate paragraph of the 1/3/08 Office action.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 3/28/08 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant states the Office has too narrowly focused on the brushing feature and has missed the novelty of the instant invention. The pending claims are directed to a process of mechanically brushing a membrane. The Office has addressed these limitations in the above rejections. Based on the pending claims, there are not any other issues related to the novelty of the instant invention.

Applicant states Beer et al. not only fails to teach the mechanical brushing, but additionally fails to teach the brushing while rinsing with water. In the absence of a showing of unexpected results, the Office maintains it would have been within the skill of the art to brush the membrane while it is being rinsed as reiterated in the above rejections.

Applicant states "sodium alkyl sulfonate" is not the only anionic wetting agent that could be used to perform the instant invention. The original specification and claims do not describe any specific "anionic wetting agent". In the absence of a more complete description of what the "anionic wetting agents" could be, any discussion of specific agents, such as "sodium alkyl sulfonate" are not commensurate with the pending claims.

Applicant states Dr. Beer's 9/28/07 1.132 Declaration shows the unexpected results of the instant invention. The 1/3/08 remarks by the Office detail why this Declaration is not convincing. Furthermore, the 9/28/07 Declaration is not commensurate in scope with the pending claims.

Applicant has supplied several documents for consideration. The filing of these documents does not comply with 37 CFR 1.197 that requires the references are cited on a PTOL-1449 and a certification or 1.17(p) fee. Consequently, the Office has not considered the documents. However, if Applicant complies with the requirements for citation of art, the references will be fully considered.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
